Web Development Types Activities- Unit 1.1

1. Can you outline the key features and functions of the frontend like user authentication, account overview and backend like transaction processing of an online banking website?

2. Look at the image of a website given below:

List 4 features each frontend and backend for this website.